

The Middle Ages in the Wider World

Medieval Worlds in the Classroom and the Text

A one-day workshop, Saturday, April 28,
2018, 10:30am – 4:30pm.

UC Davis, Buehler Alumni Center, Alpha Gamma Rho room.

Continental breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Registration begins soon. Directions and parking.

Funded by the UC President's Office through its Multicampus Research Initiative project MRI-17-441233, The Middle Ages in the Wider World.

Shokoofeh
Rajabzadeh, UCB: “On Teaching the Global Middle Ages”

Danielle Callegari, UCB
Akash Kumar, UCSC:
“The Medieval Table:
An Online Platform for Teaching the Medieval Globe”

Alexandra Verini,
UCLA
Drew K. Richardson,
UCSC
Rebecca Hill, UCLA:
“Medieval Women’s Global Literature”

Cristina Politano, UCLA
Ani Honarchian, UCLA:
“Of Saints and Rulers:
The Ideology of Hagiography in Late
Antiquity”

Keynote address:

Shirin
Khanmohamadi,
“From al-Andalus to Khorasan:
Translating Empires
of the Saracens in the Chansons de Geste.”

Schedule of Talks

10:30 am

Coffee and registration

11:00 am

Shokoofeh Rajabzadeh, UCB, "On Teaching the Global Middle Ages."

Danielle Callegari, UCB and Akash Kumar, UCSC, "The Medieval Table: An Online Platform for Teaching the Medieval Globe"

- Comments: Yuming He, UCD

1:00 pm

Lunch

2:30 pm

Keynote address

Introduction: Matthew Vernon, UCD

Shirin Khanmohamadi, "From al-Andalus to Khorasan: Translating Empires of the Saracens in the Chansons de Geste."

3:45 pm

Coffee break

4:00 pm

Alexandra Verini, UCLA, Drew K. Richardson, UCSC, Rebecca Hill, UCLA, "Medieval Women's Global Literature."

Cristina Politano, UCLA and Ani Honarchian, UCLA, "Of Saints and Rulers: The Ideology of Hagiography in Late Antiquity."

- Comment: Claire Waters, UCD

5:30 – 7:00 pm

Buffet dinner

